HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY!

Wishing all of our Mums, grandmothers, aunts, wonderful friends, teachers, carers and mentors, and everyone who has had a special 'motherly' influence in our lives a very happy and blessed day today. Special prayers also for families grieving the absence or loss of their mothers and grandmothers. After our 'family service' and the distribution of chrysanthemums today, the children and teachers of the Sunday School will be providing a 'Mothers' Day' morning tea in the Coffee Shop - all welcome. NB: All women of the PM congregations, please note your invitation to the Women's Inspire Afternoon on Saturday 24 June. Guest Presenter will be Carolyn Craig-Emilsen (Leura Uniting Church/ Australian Spiritual Network). Leigh Memorial rsvps: Samantha.

NEXT SUNDAY - BOOKLET 'JOTTINGS'

To enable everyone an opportunity to "jot down" something for our UCA 40th Anniversary booklet, there will be time allocated in both the morning and evening services at Leigh on 21 May. Longer contributions may be emailed via emccder4@gmail.com by 4 June. Thank you for supporting this key part of Parramatta Mission's anniversary acknowledgements.

PLANNING PROPOSAL SUBMISSIONS

Thanks again for everyone's support. Please maintain prayerful action on all matters relating to our development application - and please pray for ongoing strength and wisdom for our advocates and supporters throughout the important negotiations. Enquiries: Keith & Ian.

HOSPITALITY MONTH @ LEIGH IS UNDERWAY!

Booklet Project: UCA 40th Anniversary 2017

Hi all,

The PM Heritage Committee are putting together a booklet to mark the UCA 40th Anniversary this year. Its title is: 'Pilgrim People: 40 years of the Uniting Church, 1977- 2017 - a Parramatta Mission reflection.

Will you help us by writing something for this publication?

What should I write? Some people may choose to write about their memories of being at Leigh or Westmead (or at another church) when the UCA came into being in 1977, some may recount a UCA event or program from recent times that has meant something to them - and some may want to suggest how the UCA needs to approach the future. Beyond these few suggestions however, the topic of each submission is entirely 'open' to choice.

How long does my contribution need to be? Submissions can be anywhere between a few lines and a couple of pages.

Who can participate? All members (of all ages) within the PM congregations are invited to express their memories, views or ideas for the future. Slips of paper and pens will be available soon - or people can simply submit their responses to LeighMemorialUniting@gmail.com at any time that they wish.

When is it needed? All submissions will need to be emailed or given in hard copy to Liz by Sunday 4 June at the latest.

If you have any questions, please contact a member of the committee (Keith, Liz, Neil, Samantha, Lorna & Inise) and thank you in anticipation of your contribution to this special, collective project.

Blessings,

The Parramatta Mission Heritage Committee, 2017

John 14:1-14

1 Jesus said, "Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? 3 And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. 4 And you know the way where I am going." 5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" 6 Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me. 7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you know him and have seen him. 8 Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied". 9 Jesus said to him, "I am with you so long a time and yet you do not know me Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father; how can you say, 'Show us the Father?' 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words which I say to you, I do not say from myself; but the Father who remains in me does his works. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me; otherwise believe because of the works themselves. 12 Truly, truly I tell you, the one who believes in me will do the works which I do, and greater things than these will they do because I am going to the Father. 13 And whatever you ask in my name, this will I do, in order that the Father will be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask anything in my name, I will do it."
(Translation by Keith Hamilton)

Reflection

The above is part of the farewell speech of Jesus in John's gospel. Jesus offers comfort. The statement that Jesus will do whatever we ask, is not magical thinking, nor to be taken as God as some kind of father Christmas, but for those who are doing the works of Jesus, he will assist in those actual works.

With colleagues Rev Dr Manas Ghosh and former Prime Minister of Fiji, Major General (retired) Sitiveni Rabuka, at a lunch in his honour following our Leigh Fijian service today. The welcome included a carva ceremony. An impromptu q&a was held with many asking the former Prime Minister about the situation in Fiji. As usual, a great lunch. I was delighted to be part of this day.

Above: With colleagues Revs Christine Bayliss Kelly, Danielle Hemsworth Smith, Manas Ghosh, John Dacey, and Coral Harris, and also my niece Bethany Porter. We were speaking to several hundred school students about PM. They asked thoughtful questions.

On the wall at Likemind, Seven Hills. The words under each sketch are: 'Through times of many vivid dreams, Through times of jagged cliffs and rough waters, You offered me a window of light and a ray of hope.'

A thank you to all who put in a submission to Council regarding the Civic Link proposal. Keep praying and talking about our vision inSpire the Common Good.

Another federal budget. I was personally pleased that the Medicare levy is increased to cover NDIS, that the banks are being asked to make a bigger contribution, but disappointed that overseas aid was not increased and neither was Newstart.

Happy Mothers Day to all mums, especially new mums.

Blessings, Keith Hamilton

Through the life and witness of its congregations, through its delivery of social services, Parramatta Mission is seeking to redevelop its site and be a source of inspiration in the life of Sydney's 'central city'. It is seeking to align its life with 5 theological principles.

Leigh Memorial Church seeks to be:

2). A public place:

- which acknowledges, engages and respects the indigenous heritage of this land and area – and thus inspires acts
- which make for reconciliation;
which recognizes and celebrates the cultural and religious diversity of the city;
- which celebrates the history of Parramatta and an encourages visions for the future;
- which is a place of welcome and hospitality to the wider community – a city-space;
- which is a centre of Arts and Theatre inspiring diverse and rich expressions of creativity;

Prayer: Creator God, in you we all move and have our being: you have been with us in the past and your promise is to be with us in Christ Jesus, Emmanuel, to the end of the age. Open our eyes and ears, our hearts and minds, to see how this place may be a place of reconciliation here in the heart of our city. Through your Spirit, we pray for a vision of what might be and how that build upon what has been, Amen.

The Basis of Union of the Uniting Church calls its members to be a “fellowship of reconciliation” which is a “foretaste of that coming reconciliation and renewal which is the end in view for the whole creation” Paragraph 3); The Revised Preamble to the Constitution of the Uniting Church acknowledges that the Aboriginal and Islander peoples are the First Peoples of these lands and waters, Paragraph 2); and ‘celebrates this Covenantal relationship (between First and Second Peoples) as a “foretaste of that coming reconciliation and renewal”.

The language of reconciliation was used by the apostle Paul in 2 Corinthians 5:11-6:2. This is a passage that is frequently drawn upon following the prayer of confession: “17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! 18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, [c] not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.” It is through this call to recommendation that the saints at Corinth are called to be “ambassadors: for Christ.

This language of reconciliation is also used at Ephesians 2:11-22. It is used to overcome hostility and remind those who were once strangers and aliens to each other that now they are “members of the household of God”.

Gary Bouma had identified how living faithfully in diversity is the ‘new normal’ for the Christian faith in his country. (Being Faithful in Diversity, Adelaide: ATF Press, 2011).

Isaiah 51:1: “You that seek the Lord. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and the quarry from which you were dug”; Acts 2:17: “I will pour out my Spirit .. and your young men shall see visions”.

The gospel was first proclaimed in Athens, the home of democracy, in the forum – a marketplace of ideas, Acts 17:16-34.

The Christian faith has inspired great art, music and literature throughout the centuries. The King James’ Version of the Bible (1611) informed the English language for nearly three centuries.
