CONDOLENCES

Our condolences go to Jan Robson and her family as they mourn the death of David who passed away on Wednesday afternoon. We are thankful the family had the opportunity to be with him across the week and although there is relief that he is not suffering, his death brings sadness to all.

Exodus 20:1-17

1 Then God spoke all these words: 2 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; 3 you shall have no other gods before me. 4 You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. 5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and fourth generation of those who reject me, 6 but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generations of those who love me and keep my commandments. 7 You shall not make wrongful use of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name. 8 Remember the Sabbath day, and keep it holy. 9 Six days you shall labour and do all your work. 10 But the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work – you, your son or daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns. 11 For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it. 12 Honour your father and mother, so that your days may be long in the land that Lord your God is giving you. 13 You shall not kill. 14 You shall not commit adultery. 15 You shall not steal. 16 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. 17 You shall not covert your neighbour's house; you shall not covert your neighbours spouse, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour. (NRSV)

Reflections

The Hebrew Scriptures, what some call the Old Testament, are the sacred writings shared by both Jews and Christians. They speak of God, and relationships with God's good creation. In these writings are commandments and teaching about living in right relationships. Naturally they cannot cover every eventuality, and particular teaching in one time needs to be interpreted for its application in another time, noting that interpretation does not equal dismissing the teaching. The teaching can provide an ethical framework in which to live. It is always dangerous of course to take 20 verses from one place and make them stand alone and thus read them out of context. An important consideration is that the Bible starts with God and ends with God, and in speaking about God speaks of God taking the initiative – coming in grace and hospitality. Noteworthy that the first part of this teaching above focusses on relationship with God, beginning with an action by God, before the teaching turns to human relationships with others. The pivot point is the teaching on the Sabbath, which is extensive. The reality is that humans cannot go on working for hours without a break, and days without rest. We need 6-8 hours' sleep a night, and a 'weekend' off. Maybe we don't get 8 hours sleep every day, but should most days, and if not a weekend every week, then most weeks. Of course for some of our staff and ministers, the weekend might be mid-week, particularly where programs are providing 24/7 support. There is nothing like having 2 days' rest. It is interesting to note that the Anglican church has said its ministers will only work 5 days per week – they have to work out which five – and thus be refreshed and also model for the church healthy living. Sabbath rest is not only physical rest, it is acknowledging that it is God's creation, not ours, and no matter how hard nor long we work, we cannot control every eventuality. We need to rely on and live in divine grace. Hence grace is the first vale of Parramatta Mission. An expression of grace is hospitality.

Last week at St Stephens UC, Sydney, the closure of ministry service was held for Rev Dr Clive Pearson, as the Research Fellow in Public and Contextual Theology for the Assembly of the UCA. Here Clive is with Colleen Geyer, General Secretary of the Assembly. In the lower right corner is Mary Pearson, Clive's wife. Both Clive and Mary are ministers in association of Parramatta Mission.

Amelia, our new PM WSU chaplain, sang a solo and led the singing at the closure of ministry service for Clive.

Much has been said this past week about the late Billy Graham, world renowned evangelist. One memory I have is when he was asked to criticised the theology of a prominent minister he instead spoke of that person's good ministry, and on another occasion said "if you have nothing good to say, say nothing," and on another words to the effect of find something good to say before finding something wrong. My wife, Julie, speaks of two stars and a wish – two things to compliment before one thing you wish could be done better. Worth a thought.

Blessings, Keith Hamilton
