REMEMBRANCE DAY 2018: CENTENARY OF THE ARMISTICE

This Remembrance Day, we gratefully acknowledge the sacrifice of over 100 of our members who served in the First World War and the 4 brave young men of the Leigh Memorial congregation who died serving our country so far away from home: Clive Wooster, James Tamsett, J. Morris Hunt and Stephen Booth. We also remember those who served in subsequent conflicts, those still serving, and the families of the fallen. We further acknowledge the devotion of women in our congregations – notably in the sphere of family support, nursing, community aid and fundraising. On this day, 100 years after the Armistice, we continue to pray for the embrace of God's peace in our world and a cessation of hostilities, and for Christ's love and compassion to infuse the decisions of world leaders and the conduct of nations and communities. Lest We Forget. A commemoration will take place during morning worship. Many thanks to Lucy for her organ voluntary.

SYMPATHIES

Our congregation expresses its deepest sympathies to Nita, on the passing of her much-loved father in Calcutta – and to Rev. WESTMEAD Congregation

WORSHIP

Welcome back to Rev. Christine Bayliss Kelly after four weeks away. You have been greatly missed even though everyone has been so glad for you to have a well earned break away from your very busy schedule at Westmead.

REMEMBERANCE DAY

Today marks the 100th Anniversary of the Armistice which ended the first world war in (1914-1918). At 11a.m. along with people throughout the country, We Will Remember Them.

ANGEL TREE

Next Sunday, 18th November, will be the last day for donating to Angel Tree. $230 has been raised to date. Our goal is to raise $300 plus, to fund 10 gifts for 10 children, being Christmas gifts for children in families where a parent is an inmate in a correctional centre. The gifts and a hamper for the family will be delivered in time for Christmas. If you would like to support this important ministry, there are collection boxes near the back of the church and on the front desk. Please speak with Karen for further information.

PLAY GROUPS

Playgroup will be on two days from this week, Monday and Wednesday. Thank you for all who have helped out over this last month.

NUTRITIOUS NOVEMBER.

During November, Westmead Congregation will serve nutritious and tasty food for morning tea or afternoon tea, as we are ever mindful that there are many people among us who have health problems which require special thought about what they eat. We are sharing this responsibility by being mindful of the food we serve. Last Sunday was the first serving, and appeared to be most popular with all who came. Suggestions to serve are fruit, low GI foods, cheese and crackers, dips, popcorn, gluten free biscuits. If you would like to contribute something for morning tea you could follow these suggestions, or you may have more ideas. Your contribution will greatly assist congregation funds.

ELECTION OF LEADERS

In a couple of weeks' time names will be put forward for the election of leaders for the coming year. Perhaps there is some way that you may be able to assist in the many tasks we are called to in the work of this congregation, or you may think of someone else in the congregation who you may nominate for these roles. Please pray for God's guidance as we prepare for elections.

Hi everyone,

I have some feedback from a receiver of one of our dental vouchers below. This may offer some confidence in referring young people to this clinic for dental treatment in the future! Many of you will know that we have recently been working closely with Dr Zena from the Riverstone Family Dental Clinic who generously donated $1000 towards dental support for young people – which has almost entirely been used (we have just one voucher remaining to the value of $200).

Steve Kisely published a 2016 article in the Canadian Journal of Psychiatry: “The poor physical health faced by people with mental illness has been the subject of growing attention, but there has been less focus on the issue of oral health even though it is an important part of physical health. This article discusses the two-way association between oral and mental health. In one direction, the prospect of dental treatment can lead to anxiety and phobia. In the other, many psychiatric disorders, such as severe mental illness, affective disorders, and eating disorders, are associated with dental disease: These include erosion, caries, and periodontitis. Left untreated, dental diseases can lead to teeth loss such that people with severe mental illness have 2.7 times the likelihood of losing all their teeth, compared with the general population.”

Here are the words of a young person who has recently used one of our vouchers. She has consented to us sharing these comments with all staff and also with clients anxious about attending the dentist:

Thank you for the voucher and linking me in with Dr Zena. She is so lovely and compassionate! I had one tooth fixed yesterday and I have I have to go back roughly 3 more times to fix 3 others with the same amount of significant damage. Poor Zena has a lot of work to do with just one tooth! She has significantly reduced the prices on my treatment plan thanks to my affiliation with headspace. So I'm going to have to be strict with my budget and prioritise dental work. My teeth are acute and it's important that I go back to fix the rest. She is unable to fix my enamel from purging as any treatment will be a waste of money due to the fact that purging will ruin it in a couple of days but luckily for me I “ruined it perfectly” lol. She did however give me advice with how to protect my teeth from further erosion which was so good!

She's so compassionate. I mean my mouth is sore and can't open it much right now but it will be worth it in the end once I fix it all up. I've also made a commitment to her that I will reduce/ look at stopping purging to help my teeth. It's also a current behaviour I want to recover from regardless! I'll definitely go back to Zena to complete my treatment plan. I'll budget my pay for it and hopefully have my teeth fixed up before New Years. That would be nice. If not then by end of January before I go back to uni in February. I was so anxious making my way to see her as I didn't know what to expect and due to my negative experience with a dentist back in 2010 but Zena was great! I was an anxious mess and she was lucky I didn't bite her! Lol. Thank you again for your help with linking me in to her! I really appreciate it and it's a stepping stone with my recent choice last week to step into real recovery with my eating disorder.

If my message can help other young people feel more comfortable with dental as it is pretty scary, then I am more than happy for you to share my feedback! As well as boosting Zena's amazing work. Ahaha you can even mention that they can watch Netflix while they get their teeth done. Plus I'm more than happy for you to share from an eating disorders point as this is a consequence of my ed. Stomach acid is so dangerous. It upset me yesterday when I realised how much damage I've done to my body due to the abuse I've put it through due to the actions of my ed but I'm really trying this time to heal my body. ...I'd love it for young people to be able to go to someone who is so compassionate especially with mental health. She even tells you what she's doing so that you are aware and to ease anxiety. Plus will stop to give you a breather if it becomes too overwhelming. She listens to your concerns and works around you. I highly recommend her to anyone, especially our young people :)

Ah also, the clinic gives a follow up call the next day to make sure everything is okay- no adverse effects from the dental work and advice if something isn't quite right. The whole team are great. The follow up call this morning made me feel good despite the pain I'm in.

Micah 4:1-5

1 In days to come the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills. Peoples shall stream to it, 2 and many nations shall come and say: "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. 3 He shall judge between many peoples, and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away; they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore; 4 but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig trees, and no one shall make them afraid; for the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken. 5 For all the peoples walk, each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and ever. (NRSV)

Reflection

Today we commemorate 100 years after the end of WWI. While no one who fought in that war is still alive, older people would remember those who did, and those who suffered loss. Below is a hymn written by Ally Barrett, for a UK hymns of peace competition to make the centenary. It picks up the theme of Micah above of finding hope and healing, and seeking peace.

- 1 Hope for the world's despair:
 we feel the nations' pain;
 can anything repair
 this broken earth again?
 For this we pray:
 in every place
 a spark of grace
 to light the way.
- 2 Wisdom for all who bear
 the future in their hand,
 entrusted with the care
 of this and every land.
 When comes the hour,
 O Lord, we pray,
 inspire the way
 we spend our power.

- 3 Honour for all who've paid
war's painful, bitter price,
when duty called they made
the greatest sacrifice.
Their memory
will never cease
to cry for peace
and harmony.
- 4 Ease for the troubled mind
in endless conflict caught,
each soul that cannot find
the peace beyond all thought.
May they be blessed with healing balm
for inner calm
and perfect rest.
- 5 Love for the human heart:
when hate grows from our fears
and inwardly we start
to turn our ploughs to spears.
Help us to sow
love's precious seed
in word and deed,
that peace may grow.

"WE ALL NEED A HOME."

PM Hosted a public forum on ensuring secure affordable housing for all.

The speakers:

- Dr Louise Crabtree, Senior Research Fellow and the Director of Engagement in the Institute for Culture and Society, Western Sydney University.
- Ms Julie Owens MP, Federal Labor Member for Parramatta.
- Councillor Benjamin Barrak, City of Parramatta Council.
- Dr Geoff Lee MP, State Liberal Member for Parramatta.
- Ms Jenny Leong MP, State Greens Member for Newtown and spokesperson on housing.

The audience voting their support for more work on affordable housing.

Above right: The co-chairs for the forum were Magnus Linder, CEO of Churches Housing, and Candice Williams, Manager of Community Housing at Parramatta Mission. Sydney's housing is one of the least affordable in the world, and people in Western Sydney struggle to find and keep a place they can afford to buy or even rent, anywhere near their work place.

The campaign is led by the Sydney Alliance, which Parramatta Mission, Northmead UC, UC Synod of NSW.ACT, Vinnies, Churches Housing and many more are members, and also the Synod Social Justice Forum, of which I am a member representing all the parish missions. The campaign has held public forums, gathering information and commitments from individuals, developers, politicians, and councils. This will culminate in an assembly in the Sydney Town Hall on 14 March, at which major political candidates will be challenged to committee to affordable housing. The ask is for a commitment to:

1. Develop a comprehensive long-term social and affordable housing plan with targets and timelines - to ensure governments are publicly accountable for promises and progress.
2. Legislate for "inclusionary zoning" (or "shared value") in new developments - to set aside legally enforceable minimum percentages of units for low-moderate-income-affordable rental. Based on expert advice, we decided to campaign for enforceable targets for percentages of new developments to be set aside for lower-income-affordable rental: at least 15% of the whole of new developments on private land, and at least 30% on public land.
3. End "no grounds" evictions in NSW law, which leave low-income renters unnecessarily vulnerable.
4. Consider other options proposed by experts - like a broad-based property tax to replace stamp duty, or a "vacancy tax" on long-empty buildings.

Special thanks to all the staff (Community Housing, Meals Plus, Property) and members of the congregations who helped plan, set-up, and run the event, and then pack up.

The managers forum held last week was the last for 2018. The Senior Minister / CEO managers met at our Smithfield office. The focus of the morning was the implementation of a new information system and risk management. The system will in real time capture vital information including but not limited to WHS, incidents, issues, clinical governance, quality, complaints, risks and compliments from all PM stakeholders including clients, consumers, employees, volunteers, members of the congregations etc.

Ulysses Chioatta, PM Director of Compliance, and General Counsel, who also teaches in this area at WSU, led the session.

Blessings, Keith Hamilton

We are hosting Christmas Day Lunch and need your help!

Parramatta Mission would like to offer our community a place to come to on Christmas Day and enjoy lunch in a friendly environment.

The recent Homeless Persons Street Count found that there are almost 400 people a night who do not have a place of their own to sleep as well as many more in transitional or temporary housing who are barely making ends meet. Christmas can be a very lonely and isolating time for these people. As the provider of Lifeline Western Sydney, we know that the busiest time of year for calls to our helpline are Christmas Day and Boxing Day and therefore the importance of community and connection is essential.

We recognise how valuable Volunteers are and know that for this day to be a success, we are needing numerous volunteers to help on Christmas Eve and on Christmas Day.

If you are interested in volunteering,
please contact Bianca before Friday the 9th November Phone 02 9891 2277
or email christmas@parramattamission.org.au and advise which shift(s) you are interested in.

24th December | Christmas Eve. We require 20 Volunteers 1.30pm – 4pm
25th December | Christmas Day Session One. We require 20 Volunteers 8am – 10.30 am
25th December | Christmas Day Session Two. We require 50 Volunteers 10.30am – 3pm

Please note, expressions of interest are currently being taken, however this does not guarantee a spot to volunteer on the day. We will advise closer to the date whether you have secured a spot. A Volunteer Induction will take place in the week prior and will be compulsory to attend. Information regarding this be provided closer to the day.

*Thank
you!*
