Parramatta Mission acknowledges that all of our work and our 36 sites are on the land of traditional owners. We pay respect to the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather, and acknowledge Elders past and present, and emerging leaders.

REPRESENTATIONS TO COUNCIL

Many thanks to everyone who rallied for the cause and emailed their councillors and/or the Acting CEO of Parramatta Council regarding the 'land grab' set to disadvantage Parramatta Mission and reduce our service capabilities. Thanks also to Keith for his representations on our behalf and to all the PM staff, members and supporters involved in seeking a breakthrough on this matter. In addition to the extensive Aboriginal history of our site in Parramatta, our land on Macquarie Street was granted by Governor Macquarie in 1820 for the purposes of Christian worship, and for the provision of support to the community. From the opening of our first Chapel in 1821 until the present, our congregations have reached out to the vulnerable and marginalized – and sought a realization of the PM values of 'Grace, Dignity, Inclusion, Faith and Hope.' An update regarding this important issue will be provided to the congregations as soon as possible. In the meantime, let's keep prayerful & keep strong. Thanks to our own Bruce Streatfeild, who played his violin at Leigh Memorial on Tuesday morning as a gesture of protest and as an act of encouragement for all involved in the effort for justice.

CHANGE OF BOOM GATE CODE AT 175

The code for the boom gate needs to be changed as people have given away the code to others beyond Parramatta Mission and more people are using the car park to avoid paying parking which results in those who should be able to use the car park often not finding a spot. The code will be changed Monday 18th Feb. Please see Rev Christine for the new code. It is important we do not share this with others. The car park is available for members of the three congregations, the motel staff and guests and staff from Parramatta Mission there on church business. If you do not have the code please go to reception and ask for the day code. We are researching the usage of the car park to assist us with the future needs in a redevelopment. Staff at reception need to know who is on the premises at all times so this is also a matter of safety. Please leave your name, number plate and a contact phone number for the staff to contact you in case of emergency. This information will only be used for emergency or to assist in research (excluding private information).

MEMBERSHIP

Thank you to all who have completed membership forms. The roll has been confirmed by the Leaders' meeting. There will continue to be some follow-up to ensure that everyone is confident of their membership.

MISSION ZONE

The Cumberland Mission Zone will meet at Westmead on Wednesday 20th February. If you would like to attend then please see Rev Christine.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Westmead will also host the World Day of Prayer service on 1st March at 11.00am. All are welcome to attend. Please see Rev Christine or Lorna if you will be present. The service will join with people across the world- with a focus on Slovenia.

PRAYING FOR PARRAMATTA COUNCIL

Please pray for Parramatta Council as we negotiate appropriate changes to their request for land from PM and our desire to build in a way which both assist the council in their desire and fulfils the work we seek to do with the most vulnerable.

Luke 6:17-26

17 And coming down with them (from the mountain) he stood on a level place, and a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coast country of Tyre and Sidon 18 who came to hear him and to be cured from their diseases, and those who were being tormented from unclean spirits were healed. 19 And the entire crowd sought to touch him, because power went out from him and cured all. 20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples and said: "Blessed are the poor, because yours is the kingdom of God. 21 Blessed are those who hunger now, because you will be satisfied. Blessed are those who weep now, because you will laugh. 22 Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and rebuke you and cast out your name as evil for the sake of the Son of Man. 23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy; for realise this, your reward is great in heaven; for in the same way their fathers did to the prophets. 24 But woe to you that are rich, because you have received your consolation. 25 Woe to you who have been satisfied now, because you will hunger. Woe to those who laugh now, because you will mourn and lament. 26 Woe when all people speak well of you; in the same way their fathers did to the false prophets.

(Translation by Keith Hamilton)

Reflections

Luke's Gospel has often been the book from the Bible reflected upon by people involved in social justice and social action through community services. For those who love cricket, David Shepherd, once upon a time opening bat for England, became the bishop of Liverpool. It was tough times on Merseyside. Margaret Thatcher was Prime Minister, and she took strong exception to the way in which the Bishop was campaigning on behalf of the good of the city and those disadvantaged. When she accused him of being a communist, the Bishop went onto the front foot and declared that, as a matter of fact, all that he had been doing was reading the Gospel of Luke and taking it to heart.

There is a challenge to the powerful who ignore the plight of the poor. A challenge to people who separate faith from actions, and refrain from prayerful action to include people often excluded by society. The blessings and woes are a provocative teaching and also connect to Mary's song of reversal, the Magnificat:

And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, 47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, 48 for he has regarded with favour the humiliation of his female slave. For now this; from now on all generations will consider me blessed; 49 for the One who is mighty has done great things for me and holy is his name. 50 And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation. 51 He has shown strength with his arm, he has scattered those who are arrogant in their heart; 52 he has disposed of rulers from thrones and exalted the undistinguished; 53 he has filled the hungry with good things and the rich he has sent away empty. 54 He has helped his servant Israel, in remembering his mercy, 55 as he promised our ancestors, to Abraham and his descendants forever.

Civic Link: You would be aware of the concerns that Parramatta Mission has expressed this past week regarding the City of Parramatta's proposed Civic Link. Thank you to those of you who expressed your democratic rights and let members of Council know your concerns. The present state of play is that the Council deferred the decision on releasing the proposal until 25 February. In the meantime, I have been active and seeking out advice on the best way to proceed.

Some of the key issues are:

1. The draft proposal for civic link was released in 2017. In that document was a clause I negotiated with the then Administrator of the city that said buildings along the link, for example 119a Macquarie St, could have a cantilevered building over their own land, and thus providing access to the civic link.
2. The draft proposal from the Planning department brought to the City of Parramatta Council Meeting on 11 February 2019, had that clause of the cantilever removed.
3. New to the proposal was the requirement that the Civic Link be clear to the sky, meaning no building can overhang the Civic Link.
4. New to the proposal is the requirement that Parramatta Mission give up 7 metres of land on the southern side of 119a Macquarie St, (the back of the Fellowship and church) to a lane way, to enable one-way southbound vehicular access between the Church and 5 PSQ (the Council building).
5. While this lane way had been discussed it was 6 metres and not 7 and had the capacity for overhang of a cantilever, and was not for vehicles, but pedestrian access only. The cantilever has been removed in the latest proposal.
6. New to this proposal is that under the civic link and the proposed land, there be no underground use.
7. The inability to have underground use under the Civic Link reduces the size of a potential carpark for Parramatta Mission under 119a Macquarie St.
8. The inability to have underground use of the land under the 7-metre-wide lane on the southern side of 119 Macquarie St, means that an underground car park link from 99a Macquarie St, the entrance to the underground car park, cannot extend to the 119a property, thus preventing any underground car park on 119a Macquarie St

9. The new proposal includes removal of land from the northern end of land, facing onto 119a Macquarie St. This further reduces the capacity of Parramatta Mission to use the land at 119a Macquarie St. The planning department desire to have the light rail station out the front of the church, which is inconsistent with the desire by Planning to have the heritage of the church revealed. It will also mean that when there is a wedding or funeral, people exiting the church (the church has a capacity for 700 people) will stop the light rail.
10. In summary, the proposal differs from previous proposals in that it reduces the width of the building by 6.5 meters, the length by 7 metres at the southern end, and by setback of unspecified amount at the northern end, it prevents the underground use of the land, and it does this with no mention of compensation, and indeed says that Parramatta Mission will give the land over for public use. That is, it reduces the useable land of 119a Macquarie Street by 50%, and the total carpark by 50%
11. 97 and 99 Macquarie Street (The Epworth) – Provide a 3.5m on each property along the common boundary to create a 7m shared service accessway. This is new.

The only conclusion that can be drawn is that Planning Department of City of Parramatta Council seek to excise Parramatta Mission from the centre of the city. This then becomes an issue about what makes for a good city.

Additionally, Planning wants the Civic Link to be a straight line from the Railway to the River. However, most architects will say that a straight line in a city is boring and not good planning.

Here are some key messages:

1. “This situation has a background and context, Parramatta Council, along with the developer (of Parramatta Square) Walker Group gave public land (6.5m) to the NAB, which has just copped a hammering in the banking royal commission.” Dr Chioatto said.
2. PM supports the link from rail to river but it’s unfair for us to be penalised by taking away half our building while our neighbour (NAB) is rewarded with public land.
3. “To make their link happen, they have to find that land somewhere. And now they want to take land away from a not-for-profit which has been here for 200 years and help the most vulnerable in society. So council is taking from the poor to give to the rich.” Said Dr Chioatto.

4. Taking 6.5m of our building mightn't sound like much, but what it actually means is that Parramatta City Council are taking away half of our building and if you want to put a dollar value on it, it's $30 million in building value," Dr Chioatto said.
5. "It's a huge, huge concern and we're outraged by what council's doing." Senior Minister Keith Hamilton said "This move by council will directly harm and reduce the ability of Parramatta Mission to do God's good work in the heart of Parramatta,"
6. "One of the things we want to provide with this is low-cost accommodation for people who are at risk of homelessness, and University students," Planning's proposal seriously threatens this plan Rev Hamilton said.
7. PM supports the link from rail to river and only wants to best use its own land to better provide services for the most vulnerable in our society.
8. Effectively we and those we help, who are the most vulnerable in our society, are being hurt with a building loss value of $30m while the bank is being helped – what would NAB customers think?
9. We do not want the city of Parramatta to become like the Martin Place tent city, that was overrun with homeless people. Our solutions include provision of affordable accommodation and wrap around services which minimise the numbers of rough sleepers in Parramatta.
10. We seek a win-win solution for the city of Parramatta Mission and have solutions to do this which ensures the most vulnerable groups in our community are not even further disadvantaged.

Lent commences 5 March with Ash Wednesday

This year the congregations are encouraged to use the daily devotion by Walter Brueggemann, A Way Other Than Our Own. I have ordered copies, which will be made available. People may wish to make a donation towards the costs, but the cost should not prevent anyone participating. The book is also available on Kindle. Each Wednesday night through Lent I will lead a 1 hour discussion of that weeks reflections at AWCE 6-7 pm. I will also lead a discussion at Westmead during the daytime – details to follow. During Lent each congregation is encouraged ask 6 people, one each week to share for 1-2 minutes in worship of their reflections of that week.

Stations of the Cross is an annual event at Northmead High School

It is a collaboration of Northmead High School and Northmead Uniting Church. This year Parramatta Mission are joining in this collaboration. Fourteen artists have been asked to either paint or sculpture an item on one of the stations that also speaks to a contemporary theme. This year the Stations of the Cross exhibition will be from 8-21 April. Consideration is being given to how we can incorporate this into our Lenten devotions, including a possible group visit which might coincide with one of the Lenten discussions, mentioned above. More details to follow.

Last Friday night Parramatta Mission launched its centre for faith and public issues. My thanks to the three candidates for the state election for the seat of Parramatta who put themselves forward. From Left to right, Rev Niall Reid, UC minister at Northmead, who moderated the evening, Cl Phil Bradley, Green's candidate, Liz Scully, Labor candidate, Dr Geoff Lee, Liberal Candidate. Thanks to all who turned up after the 'big storm' in the Parramatta area. Also thanks to Associate Professor Rev Clive Pearson, member of Leigh Memorial and current supply minister for the Leigh Fijian Congregation who brought a reflection on the good city, good leaders and the public good.

headspace at Parramatta celebrated its 7th birthday last Thursday. Thank you to all the staff, the YAC (Youth Advisory Committee) and consortium partners working with people with a lived experience of a mental illness, making a difference in the lives of so many people.

Our Engagement Day bus tour visited headspace Parramatta and joined the birthday celebrations.
