School Holidays Prayer

Thank You Loving God for another term of school. We pray that the students recharge during this holiday and prepare themselves for the final term. That they also have fun, sleep in and soak in each spring filled day. We pray for the students that have graduated. May they rest well and prepare themselves for the upcoming HSC exams. May they feel Your love during this time, and the love of the community. We pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, God's only Son. Amen.

Climate Strike

Over 8 million people around the world united for Climate Action! Many of our members, including our youth gathered together for the strike at the Domain. May God continue to guide us through this climate crisis. Let us listen to what God is calling us to do, hear the cries of the land that we live on and those fighting to save it, and strive to be better stewards of this land, a gift our Creator God has given us.

GOSPEL YARNING 2019

NOVEMBER Sunday 17, 5pm – Wednesday 20, 5pm , at the Centre For Ministry, North Parramatta

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS HOW CAN WE BE THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST IN A SECULAR WORLD?

Gospel Yarning will again inspire, empower and connect us. This event will significantly raise your understanding of how the context of secularism affects the church, and introduce tools for strengthening your ministry in that context. This affects the whole church.

Gospel Yarning 2019 is for ministers, chaplains, deacons, presbytery-workers and leaders of ministries in the Uniting Church in Australia and in Uniting NSW/ACT.

GY2019 follows to very successful 2017 Gospel Yarning on the way the Uniting Church shares the gospel cross-culturally. We knew at the end of GY2017 that we had started something life-giving for the whole church. This is the next step – see the 2017 video www.vimeo.com/218120986 & our really useful library guide 2017 is at <http://nsw-uca.beta.libguides.com/resources/gospelyarning>.

THE CORE QUESTION: HOW CAN WE BE THE CHURCH OF JESUS IN A SECULAR WORLD?

Our answers to this core question in the recent past have simply not worked. We are not confident. Gospel Yarning will help the church to speak to the wider world and not diminish with age.

If we re-connect to the core purpose of the church, Jesus and his Kingdom, we will gain direction, grow stronger, and find our distinctive voice. What will we say when society forms its impression of the church and Christians from the images and comments in the media? What is the Gospel that we can speak as the good news? We must admit that our credibility is low. Our bad deeds have brought us shame and our many good deeds are not well connected with our good news. How can we find our voice to say, with integrity and respect, so why do we do so much for the common good – what is it about this love of God in Christ?

Our secular society with its economic rationalism has turned each person and each place into resources for profit. It is wounding our young people, crushing local cultures and trashing the planet. Where is the voice of the church? What is our Gospel?

If you resonate with this, register for GOSPEL YARNING 2019 and join others.

COMMENCING Sunday 17 Nov 5pm WORSHIP – Preacher: Rev Simon Hansford, NSW/ACT Synod, Moderator. Then, Monday 18 Nov – Wednesday 20 Nov @ 9-5.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Rev Dr Peter Hobson, Wesley Mission Queensland

Formerly a local minister, university chaplain and lecturer. Peter is a good communicator, a story-teller who is a good thinker about the world we seek to reach.

THEOLOGICAL RESPONDENT AND COMEDIAN: Pastor Paul Montague

One-half of Pirate Church, he knows how to tell us the truth about ourselves, make us uncomfortable like the Holy Spirit does, and help us to see the road ahead.

WE WILL MEET TO TALK/TALANOA/YARN in OIKOS Groups, Open Space sessions, Elective discussions and share our stories.

COST: $200 each. Lunches included. No evening meals included. Those on the leadership team will be half price.

Luke 16:19-31

19 Now there was a certain man who was rich, and who used to put on a purple robe and fine linen and who feasted every day splendidly. 20 And there was a certain poor man named Lazarus covered in ulcers who had been placed at the rich man's gate, and he sought to be satisfied with the things that fell from the table of the rich man; and even the dogs came and licked his ulcers. 22 So it happened that the poor man died and was carried away by the angels into the bosom of Abraham; and the rich man also died and was buried. 23 Now in Hades, and being tormented, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham from afar, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And calling he said, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and may cool my tongue, because I am suffering in this flame." 25 But Abraham said, "Child, remember that you received your good things in life, and Lazarus likewise the bad things; but now here he is comforted and you are suffering. 26 And as if this is not enough, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who wish to pass from here to you cannot, neither no one can cross from there to us." 27 And he said, "Then I ask you, father, send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brothers; so he may witness to them without which they might also come to this place of torment." 29 "But" said Abraham, "They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them." 30 But he said, "No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead should go to them, they will repent." 31 But he said to him, "If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise again from the dead."

(Translation by Keith Hamilton)

Reflections

The parable of the rich man and Lazarus opens with a powerful description of contrasts. The rich man wears a purple robe, fine linen and feasts sumptuously every day, while Lazarus is a pitiful sight lying at the gate hoping to feed on leftovers, his ulcers 'treated' by dogs. The rich man has closed eyes, mind and heart to the needs of the less well off. He does not even see the poor man at his gate. There is a reversal in the world of the dead. In Hades, Lazarus is in the bosom of Abraham, a difficult metaphor to unpack but points to a place of honour with the ancestors, and an echo of paradise. While the rich man is in torment.

Howard Marshall suggests the parable has an Egyptian folktale background. He wrote,

An Egyptian was reincarnated after his death as Si-Osiris, the miraculous son of a childless couple. When his 'father' one day remarked on how a rich man had a sumptuous funeral while a poor man had simply been buried, Si-Osiris took him to Amnte, the land of the dead, where he was able to see the rich man in torment and the poor man in luxury. The explanation was that the good deeds of the poor man had outweighed his evil deeds, while the opposite was true of the rich man.

Research has found that the story entered Jewish lore in at least seven versions. Jesus has taken and altered the story as part of his teaching ministry. The alteration from reincarnation to resurrection is significant. The brothers of the rich man in the house are blind to the needs of others and to the spiritual significance of events such that even if a person were to be raised from the dead they still would not believe.

Luke speaks to Christians who believed that Jesus Christ was raised from the dead, and did appear to the disciples. It is here that Luke returns to his theme: the need to honour and care for the poor.

Tim Costello said, "Spiritual values are only truly authentic if they exhibit themselves in help for others."

Likemind Seven Hills

The other week LikeMind Seven Hills and the co-located WSLHD team had an R U OK day event for staff. This event was a huge success with participation from all staff from both teams. T U OK day is a good reminder to check in with colleagues, friends and family on a regular basis, and particularly if we perceive some change in the other. This is a timely reminder that October is mental Health month. Across PM we will be holding events to raise awareness of mental health.

Pastoral message for this week....

Thankyou young people for challenging us.
We dare not ignore your message.
We all need to care for God's creation

175 WA Westmead congregation meetings

The regular meeting of 175 / Wesley Apartments (WA) and the Westmead congregation recommenced this past week, after an abeyance. The happy faces express the tone of the meeting, which included cake and tea. From left to right, Mark, Ian, Margaret, Christine, Lorna, Jan, Cameron, and Belinda. We celebrated the approval of the DA for WA, the birth of a baby at WA, 175 40, remembered the life celebrations of several members at Westmead who have lived well and long and who have recently died. We discussed the impact of the Light Rail works on access to both 175 and WA, and how we work with that. Also the Breakfast/coffee cart overlap with TOC (Time Out Café) to ensure everything runs smoothly.

Lyll Weaver Acting CEO

Julie and I will be away on leave 28 September to 5 October. Going to visit family on the farm, and family in Melbourne. While away, Lyll Weaver, CFO of Pm, and also the Treasurer of our congregations, will be the acting CEO.

Blessings, Keith Hamilton
