Parramatta Mission acknowledges that all of our work and our 36 sites are on the land of traditional owners.
We pay respect to the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather, and acknowledge Elders past and present, and emerging leaders.

LEADERS TEAM UPDATE

This Sunday, our Leaders team will meet for the final time this year. Our conversation will include planning for next month's Peace Dinner and Advent, plus some important forward planning for 2020. It will also include a visit from Ian and Keith – with updates on the Mission's future planning and site development. In 2019, the Leaders dealt with various 'house-keeping' and pastoral matters, and facilitated new brochures, signs and creative projects for the church. We also helped to facilitate public vigils for the victims of the Christchurch & Sri Lanka terror attacks, the congregation's Lent/Easter program, public forums ahead of the State and Federal elections, plus the Abraham Conference, Peace Service and a couple of 'Pot Luck' dinners. At present, Bruce & Liz are also representing the congregation on PM's 'Future Ministry Review' task group. Thank you to everyone for your support this year & a special thanks to Coral and Tracey for your generous & longstanding admin assistance to Leigh Memorial. ## Preparing for An Advent Study

The church's new year begins on the first Sunday in Advent. That is not far off now. You may already have heard the occasional Christmas carol being played in the mall! In this season of the year we change the gospel in whose company we will travel for the next 12 months. For 2019/2020 it is the gospel of Matthew.

- Some of us have explored the distinctive themes of Matthew in the past.
- This Advent we will look at 3 key texts and consider what they say and how they inform our spiritual life.

Clive will lead three studies:

Choir vestry, Leigh Memorial, Saturday mornings from 10am to 12 noon.

1: Emmanuel, God with us.

2. The Sermon on the Mount.

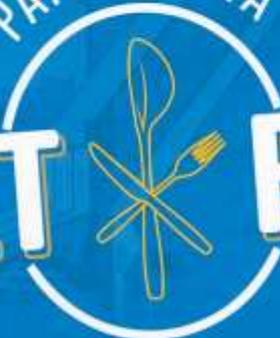

3. Whatever you did for one of these ...

Psalm 145

1 I will exalt you, O God my King,
and bless your name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless you
and praise your name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord and highly to be praised;
his greatness is beyond all searching out.

4 One generation shall praise your works to another
and declare your mighty acts.

5 They shall speak of the majesty of your glory,
and I will tell of all your wonderful deeds.

6 They shall speak of the might of your marvellous acts,
and I will also tell of your greatness.

7 They shall pour forth the story of your abundant kindness and joyfully sing of your righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious and merciful,
long-suffering and of great goodness.

9 The Lord is loving to everyone
and his mercy is over all his creatures.

10 All your works praise you, O Lord,
and your faithful servants bless you.

11 They tell of the glory of your kingdom
and speak of your mighty power,

12 To make known to all peoples your mighty acts
and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your dominion endures throughout all ages.

14 The Lord is sure in all his words
and faithful in all his deeds.

15 The Lord upholds all those who fall
and lifts up all those who are bowed down.

16 The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord,
and you give them their food in due season.

17 You open wide your hand
and fill all things living with plenty.

18 The Lord is righteous in all his ways
and loving in all his works.

19 The Lord is near to those who call upon him,
to all who call upon him faithfully.

20 He fulfils the desire of those who fear him;
he hears their cry and saves them.

21 The Lord watches over those who love him,
but all the wicked shall he destroy.

22 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord,
and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Reflections

Psalm 145 comes in the closing section of the book of Psalms, and with Psalms 146-150 concludes the book on a note of praise. It also points back as verse 20 closely resembles Psalm 1:6. Verse four speaks of one generation passing on the praise of God to another generation, as each generation receives the faith from the preceding generation, and in turn, passes it onto the next. This will include telling of God's mighty acts in history and in the sacred texts, and will also include God's mighty acts performed in each age, even the contemporary. The Psalm includes praise of God for what God has done. It also includes praise of God because of who God is: God is God and is worthy of praise. The word 'all' occurs 17 times in this Psalm, pointing to the comprehensive nature of praise of God. God is praised for worthiness, greatness, majesty, splendour, holiness, compassion, love, righteousness, and faithfulness. Like all the Psalms, this Psalm is an invitation to praise God.

Both Mark Newton and I attended the Annual General Meeting of the Mental Health Coordinating Council (MHCC) meeting this past week. Parramatta Mission is a member of the MHCC. The MHCC is a peak body that bring together organisations engaged in mental health programs, and engages with Government in influencing policy. The guest speaker was Dr Stephen King, from the Productivity Commission. The productivity commission has released a new draft report on mental Health. The commission is seeking responses by 23 January 2020. The report is at <https://www.pc.gov.au/inquiries/current/mental-health#draft>. It makes some interesting points: the best prevention is in the 0-3 years of life, and recommends social and emotional well-being checks on children included in existing physical development checks for 0-3 years old. Better follow up on people who have attempted suicide. There are about 30 attempts every day, and about 8 people every day complete suicide. The average workers compensation for mental illness is 16.2 weeks. Mental illness costs the Australian economy about $130 billion dollars each year. For every $1 benefit to the Australian Economy, there is a $2 benefit to the individual.

This past week WSU held its annual Catalyst West, which involved 350 people from across Western Sydney, including leaders of business, community organisations, people from the UCA, uni students, staff of several councils, and year 12 students of Catherine McAuley Westmead. One speaker suggested instead of speaking about liveability, speak about the lovability of the city. Not just can we live there, but would we love to live there, and why? We all need to work for a place in which no one is left behind. An inclusive place is one in which people on the margins are brought into the centre. In building new buildings, gender issues include sufficient toilets for women, allowance that women and men generally feel the heat and cold differently, and so need a better way to set room temperatures, therefore need to involve both women and men in the co-designing of place and space. The jacaranda effect: in one generation women going home from hospital after child birth were given a jacaranda tree to plant, and twenty years later jacarandas fill many streets; in a similar way, what simple idea can be put in practice today to make a difference to the place in twenty years? Buildings represent us as a society, what kind of buildings do we want to represent us? There are 1 million people in NSW under the age of 18, nearly 500,000 live in Western Sydney. Technology should come after people, not before. Need a circular not a linear economy to hold both economy and environment together. In 2018 there were 37 days over 35% in Penrith; how will people cope with increased urban heat? How can we flourish with the planet in crisis? (There have been bushfires burning on the mid-north coast for more than 2 months – seriously affecting our staff and clients, and unlikely to stop until prolonged rainfall) The choice to be green is easy, the hard work is making that happen. Closing thoughts were: accessibility, inclusive, connected, no one left behind, sustainability, make the region a leader, and, keep the dream alive. The output from all the ideas and possible solutions to current problems were collated and will be brought before governments and the community.

Blessings, Keith Hamilton

Our youth joined the Leigh Memorial youth group for a bees wax wrap workshop with Jessica Morthorpe from Uniting Earth. Bees Wax wrap is washable and reusable, a better option than plastic cling/glad wrap. This work shop was important as a continuation from the Climate Strike march on September 20th. Being a part of the Climate Strike was important to understand the responsibility the wider global community has for our earth, and the Bees Wax wrap workshop reminded us as individuals and households, there eco friendly alternatives to things we do.

ANGEL TREE

Each year we collect financial donations for Angel Tree which is an opportunity to provide some gifts for children who have a parent in Gaol. We usually provide for 10 children and try and do so for families in our local area so we can provide other support such as a Hamper at Christmas time. Across November there will be boxes in the foyer for people to place donations as you are able. Again we are aiming to support 10 children which is a cost of ap.$300. Thank you for your generosity- we have raised $200 so far!

We are invited to the Opening of NICM on Wed 18th Dec from 10.00-11.30am. All are welcome to attend and see the beautiful renovation of the Old St Vincent's Boys home which is the Westmead Campus of Western Sydney Uni. We hope to build more connections across the coming years.

END OF YEAR AND CHRISTMAS

As we move quickly to the end of the year and Christmas there will be a number of parties and Services.

- Christmas Service with Mayflower followed by a light lunch Monday 16th at 11.00am.
- Congregational Christmas/Multicultural celebration Sunday 15th followed by food.
- Christmas Remembrance Service Monday 16th at 5.30pm.
- Carols and Lessons Sunday 22nd.
- Christmas Day Service 9.00am.

Rev Christine hopes to have a special Children's Service-date and time to be decided.

HEALTHY NOVEMBER

In the lead up to the Christmas season we want to try and assist in us all being healthier. The scriptures speak of the body being a temple so being healthier is something for us all to aim for. Likewise, as we age (and we all do) it is important to try and keep active, both in mind and body. So on Wednesdays during November we are trialling some fun Body groove exercise from 12-12.30. It is moving and walking (no running involved at all) and you can move in whatever way you are able. Please see Rev Christine for more details.

This year we are expecting up to 1000 guests from across our community. In order to ensure a fun and safe environment we will once again need to utilise the space in the car park. We encourage you to seek street parking which is free on Christmas day. Thank you for your cooperation in helping this day be a huge success.”
