OPEN CHURCH

Thanks to our Open Church volunteers for committing to another year of generous service by keeping Leigh Memorial open to the public on weekdays between approx. 9.00am – 1.30pm. Additional volunteers for Open Church are always welcome. Those assisting at Open Church provide supervision in the church itself and welcome visitors. They also set-up for weekly, lunchtime Communion services on Tuesdays. Open Church has been operating at Leigh Memorial for over 30 years. Over that time, a series of 'visitors' books' in the church have recorded messages such as, "What a beautiful Church!" and "Thanks for the warm welcome!" – written by visitors from all around Australia and as far away as Sweden, the USA, Japan and Peru. Please see Rev. Manas with enquiries about Open Church - or to offer your assistance as a volunteer in this special program in the heart of our city.

THANK YOU BRUCE

A fond farewell to our dear Leigh Memorial friend and long term contributor, Bruce Streatfeild, following his move to a retirement village. Bruce has been part of our congregation family for many, many years and has lifted our spirits with his beautiful violin playing and his dedication to the Community Visitors Scheme. For 13 years, Bruce led a group of musicians who regularly performed for residents at the Thomas Street Nursing Home in Parramatta. Bruce wrote about the group and his time at Leigh on pages 92-93 of our 2017 'Pilgrim People' booklet, which was produced in celebration of the UCA 40th anniversary. Bruce also had lengthy involvements with SPOW and the Couples &

Friends. Our congregation wish you well Bruce and particularly thank you for your immense dedication to our musical enrichment – and your living testimony to the power of music in Christian outreach to the aged, those in care and the wider community. Those wishing to visit Bruce can request his new details from the pastoral team.

Psalm 111

Praise the LORD!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the LORD,
studied by all who delight in them.

Full of honour and majesty is his work,
and his righteousness endures for ever.

He has gained renown by his wonderful deeds;
the LORD is gracious and merciful.

He provides food for those who fear him;
he is ever mindful of his covenant.

He has shown his people the power of his works,
in giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithful and just;
all his precepts are trustworthy.

They are established for ever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

He sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant for ever.

Holy and awesome is his name.

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practise it have a good understanding.

His praise endures for ever.

(NRSV translation)

Psalm 112

1 Praise the Lord!

Happy are those who fear the Lord,
who greatly delight in his commandments.

2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches are in their houses,
and their righteousness endures forever.

4 They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright;
they are gracious, merciful, and righteous.

5 It is well with those who deal generously and lend,
who conduct their affairs with justice.

6 For the righteous will never be moved;
they will be remembered forever.

7 They are not afraid of evil tidings;
their hearts are firm, secure in the Lord.

8 Their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid;
in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.

9 They have distributed freely,
they have given to the poor;
their righteousness endures forever;
their home is exalted in honour.

10 The wicked see it and are angry;
they gnash their teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

(NRSV translation)

Reflections

The Psalm for this week is Psalm 112. Psalm 112 is an echo of Psalm 111. Psalm 111 describes the characteristics of God, and Psalm 112 describes the characteristics of the people in right relationship with God. Both Psalms are acrostic. The twenty two lines begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet. In Psalm 112 the psalmist praises God and speaks of the blessing it is for those who trust in God and keep the teachings of God. We do need to read carefully. We know that terrible tragedies befall anyone. Even this past week the tragic death of four children. What has been evident is in this trauma, the family, active members of Our Lady of Lebanon Church at Harris Park, have found strength and solace in their faith in God. The tragedy no doubt has devastated them, however the faith holds firm.

The Leigh Fijian congregation are at the National Fijian Conference in Adelaide. Here is the choir last Sunday performing the works they will sing at the conference

The Couples and Friends Club donated money to build two new book cases for the hall in Macquarie Street, for books for use by all, in particular clients of Meals Plus. Last Monday night the club meet and dedicated the book cases praying that all who borrow or take a book will be blessed.
Thank you Couples and Friends

Meals Plus held a Bunnings BBQ last Sunday.
Thank you to Paul and the team.
