SUPPORT AVAILABLE

We hope that everyone is keeping well. Please let the pastoral team or the congregation leaders know if you need any form of additional support during this challenging time, including practical help if unwell or in isolation. Call 9891-2277, or contact Rev. Manas, 0429 892 548. Members are also encouraged to 'phone or email a friend' and check on each other's well-being at this time – plus vulnerable people in the broader community. Every gesture makes a difference!

SMALL 'CARE' GROUPS

Leigh Memorial has established small 'care groups' within our congregation so that everyone is well-connected and informed at this time. Members of our 'care groups' are also asked to phone, text or email someone this week and simply have a chat. Sharing our feelings and experiences, and looking after our mental health is crucial during this period.

WORSHIP RESOURCES

Parramatta Mission is making weekly worship, bible studies, prayers and other resources available on its website: <https://www.parramattamission.org.au/> (follow the links through 'Congregations') – and also via traditional post. Contact 9891-2277 or wecare@parramattamission.com.au if you would like to be added to a contact or mailing list. If you're interested in participating in an online worship or study program but don't know how – that's fine. Many of us are in the same boat! Just contact Rev. Amelia: 0427 955 157 or Rev. Clive: cliverpearson@gmail.com if you would like some guidance.

RESOURCES FOR KIDS

Parents & carers are reminded that Lent & Easter colouring-in pages and Sunday School learning material are readily available via email or post on request. Kids are welcome to scan and send us their colouring-in and we will display it online! Please don't hesitate to contact our Sunday School teachers, Anne & Samantha via LeighMemorialUniting@gmail.com. ## John 20:19-31

19 When it was early evening of that day, the first of the week, and the doors having been shut where the disciples were because of fear of the Judeans, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you". 20 and having said this he pointed out his hands and side to them. At this, seeing the Lord, the disciples rejoiced. 21 So Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. Just as the Father has sent me even so I send you". 22 After Jesus said this he breathed on them and said "Receive the Holy Spirit" 23 "if you forgive the sins of any they have been forgiven. If you retain the sins of anyone they have been retained". 24 Now Thomas, one of the twelve, the one called the twin, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples told him "We have seen the Lord". But he said to them "Unless I see the marks of the nails in his hands, put my finger into the mark of the nails and put my hand into his side, I will not believe". 26 Eight days later, the disciples were again indoors and Thomas was with them. The doors had been shut but Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you". 27 Then he said to Thomas, "Reach out your finger here and see my hands and reach out your hand and put it in my side; do not be faithless but faithful". 28 Thomas answered and said to him "My Lord and my God". 29 Jesus said to him. "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe". 30 Indeed Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples which have not been written in this book; 31 But these things have been written in order that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God and that believing you might have life in his name.

Reflections

We are now in the season of Easter, a season of fifty days and eight Sundays beginning with the Easter vigil (Saturday of Easter) and concluding on the day of Pentecost. The season celebrates the resurrection of Jesus. The Bible passages for each Sunday tend to encourage the congregation to reflect upon the resurrection and its implications for Christian living today. It is the season to sing songs of the resurrection, rather than songs of the cross. Christians speak of resurrection hope. This hope stems from the belief that Christ has broken down all barriers of life, including death.

This narrative of an Easter resurrection appearance of Jesus perhaps has greater meaning at this time. The resurrected Jesus appears to the fearful and doubting disciples with the words, "Peace be with you." Just to emphasis the point, the greeting is repeated. The dialogue with Thomas is pointing to a theme of John's gospel. Not seeing is believing, but believing is seeing. That is the point. We can't see God in a physical sense, but those who believe in God "see" God. This is not magical thinking. Peace is knowing that in the midst of everything, even mayhem, we are not alone. That presence with us is the living God, the one who in Jesus walked dusty roads, spoke out on matters people wanted kept hidden, died, and which Christians affirm, rose again. Somehow through the Spirit of God the risen Christ is with us today, granting people and inspiring people to be the peace of God even in places of mayhem.
