WELCOME

A warm welcome as we gather together on this Easter Day!

LIGHTING OF THE EASTER CANDLE

Today we light the Easter candle, proclaiming the transforming power of God.
Today we celebrate: new life, new joy, new possibilities.
Christ is alive and living among us!

The candle is lit

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge the Burrumattagal people of the Darug Nation, the first inhabitants of this place, as the traditional custodians of this land and pay our respects to their ancient culture, their elders past and present and their emerging leaders. We acknowledge the presence of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who now reside within this area. We honour them for their custodianship of the land, on which we gather today.

CALL TO WORSHIP

The crucified Christ is risen!

The crucified Christ is risen indeed!

The stone has been removed from the tomb and we may meet the Christ alive in our day.

Death cannot capture the life of God.

It springs forth in every generation, within the wonder of peace and love.

Its power will always defeat the mighty, and the song of freedom from the bonds of betrayal will know no end.

The crucified Christ is risen!

The crucified Christ is risen indeed!

HYMN

Morning has broken (TiS 156)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=we-n-Zmgl0>

Morning has broken, like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken, like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the Word

Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from Heaven
Like the first dew fall, on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden Sprung in completeness where His feet pass

Mine is the sunlight, mine is the morning
Born of the One Light
Eden saw play
Praise with elation, praise every morning
God's re-creation of the new day

PRAYER

God of terror and joy,
you arise to shake the earth.
Open our graves and give us back the past so that all that has been buried may be freed and forgiven, and our lives may return to you through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Janet Morley, All desire known, 14

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

The grace of Christ is alive here and now!
We need not fear that love has died.
It breaks forth again in kindness every time that we approach in humble faith.
We are forgiven!

Thanks be to God.

HYMN     Christ is alive let Christians sing (TiS 387)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S2JEwda8G0U>

Christ is alive! Let Christians sing.
The cross stands empty to the sky.
Let streets and homes with praises ring.
His love in death shall never die.

Christ is alive! No longer bound to distant years in Palestine, but saving healing, here and now,
and touching every place and time.

In every insult, rift and war,
where color, scorn or wealth divide, he suffers still, yet loves the more,
and lives, where even hope has died

Women and men, in age and youth
Can feel the Spirit hear the call,
And find the way, the life, the truth,
Revealed in Jesus, freed from all.

Christ is alive! And comes to bring Good news to this and every future age, till all creation lives and ring with joy, with justice, love and praise.

SCRIPTURE READING John 20: 1-18 (NRSV)

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken Jesus out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”

Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple out ran Peter and reached the tomb first.

He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in.

Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself.

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet.

They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away Jesus, and I do not know where they have laid him.”

When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?”

Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.”

Jesus said to her, “Mary!”

She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher).

Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”

Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen Jesus the Christ”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

RESPONSE

*O God our nurturer, may your word live in us.
And colour our living. Amen!*

HYMN Now the green blade rises (TiS, 382)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vpU01KQIUJM>

(Sung by Steve Winwood)

Now the green blade rises from the buried grain,
Wheat that in the dark earth many years has lain;
Love lives again, that with the dead has been:
Love is come again, like wheat that springs up green.

In the grave they laid him, Love whom we had slain,
Thinking that never he would wake to life again,
Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen:
Love is come again, like wheat that springs up green.

Up he sprang at Easter, like the risen grain,
He that for three days in the grave had lain;
Up from the dead my risen Christ is seen:
Love is come again, like wheat that springs up green.

When our hearts are saddened, grieving or in pain,
By your touch you call us back to life again;
Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been:
Love is come again, like wheat that springs up green.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERING An offering of our lives and the gifts of creation.

PRAYER FOR OTHERS

Rise among us here, O Christ.

Enliven everything we are and do, we pray.

Renew our love for others
so that we can truly love with the world witnessing in this that you cannot be destroyed by the powers of this time or any other.

Take our hands and lead us towards a life which follows in your footsteps, Jesus Christ.

Give to us wisdom in walking this way and preparedness to create, even small echoes, of your brave and glorious journey.

*As our spirits lift in joy this day,
we hold these people and situations before you:*

The people pray

Bring to life the actions for good which will make the changes that are needed, we pray.

Speak through us, O Christ, that our voices will be raised against injustice.

Give to us all that we need to understand how best to work with these longing people.

Gather us towards all who feel that no-one cares about them.

Embrace the ones who believe that life is not worth living and show us how to transform the deathly forces which destroy their hope, we pray.

*Shine your risen life before us, Jesus Christ, so that we may see and know that you live in all creation in everlasting love.
Amen.*

HYMN     At the dawning of salvation (TiS 392)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7lUU7r9gisw>

1. At the dawning of salvation; in the morning of the world,
Christ is raised, a living banner
by the love of God unfurled,
Through the daylight, through the darkness,
Christ leads on his great array:
all the saints and all the sinners
he has gathered on his way.

2. He is risen in the morning, he is risen from the dead;
he is laughter after sadness,
he is light when night has fled.
He has suffered, he has triumphed, life is his alone to give:
as he gave it once he gives it evermore, that we may live.

3. For the glory of salvation in the dawn of Easter day we will praise you, loving Father;
we rejoice to sing and pray with the Son and with the Spirit Lead us on, your great array, saints and sinners celebrating your triumphant love today.

BLESSING

Reach out towards the cross of Christ and walk towards Easter day.

And may Christ claim us friends as we look up, the Holy Spirit light the way as we look down and God the Creator surround us with hope.

Amen.
